Our school builds a strong and supportive community for students, parents, and school staff. Family involvement and voluntarism is highly encouraged. We have a very active PTSA and strive to create an inclusive atmosphere. Family members are welcome in the classroom, at camp, and at our numerous activities.

The annual auction gives families a chance to have fun and support the school's programming.

What makes Cascade K-8 special?

Cascade K-8 is set apart from other public schools because of our unique learning opportunities—in the classroom and out. Here are a few of the things that make Cascade K-8 a great option for students and their families:

CAAAAAMMMMP!

Our most cherished tradition, Camp takes kids out of the classrooms for a few days each spring and fall. Families (including younger siblings) are invited to attend at no cost. Attending Camp truly cements our relationship as a small school community.

Market Day

Three times a year, students participate in a token-based economy as buyers and sellers. Their “accounts” roll over each market day, so they learn how to save and make money. Student Vendors must complete a business proposal and pay start-up costs.

Electives

A few times a year, parents join the classrooms to shake up the curriculum and give kids a chance to try something new. They offer two elective sessions, which could include anything from Rubik’s cube to cooking to LEGO engineering to fire safety.

Amazing Volunteers

All of the amazing programming at Cascade K-8 is possible because of our dedicated volunteers. All Cascade K-8 families are expected to offer their time as a volunteer; there are opportunities for everyone!

Inclusivity

Participating can be tough, but our inclusive nature ensures that siblings and relatives are part of the Cascade K-8 Community. Childcare is offered at each PTSA Community meeting, and younger siblings are welcome at Camp.
